

Prophecy for the Nation – Cindy Jacobs 2003

And I prophesy this, the Holy Spirit will so cause a Governmental shift in this land that other nations all over the world will want to study the government of Australia. And they will come and they will want to know why you have such little violence. They will want to know why you have such a model Government. They will want to know why you have such prosperity and the economy is so blessed. And the only reason you will be able to say is we have modelled our Government upon the Laws of God. And people will come. They will come from all over the world from every religion. You mark it down, it will happen, it will happen. There is a Governmental shift taking place first in the hearts of God's people in Australia but the day will happen that it will be greater than just a dream in the heart. It will happen. And just all the divisions that in Acts 17 v 26 that God has made of one blood the people of the earth you will see it happen. You will look in Government and you will see red yellow brown black and white. You will see the most – I have got to prophesy this – the most ethnically diverse Government of any nation of the earth and you will know that this is the Lord. You will walk in Parliament you will see an East Asian, you will see someone of African descent, you will see peoples of the earth. You will just be able to go down and it will be like in Heaven in that Parliament. And the Lord wants you to know that He wants to do this with Australia. I have not given this prophetic word over any nation of the world but He wants to do this and truly the division of the founders that He has made of one blood will happen and you will see the Lord wants this to be one of the first nations that really destroys racism. It will not tolerate racism. But with racism the killing of racism will not be the open door to the flood of every religion because there will such a revival when this revival comes you are not going to discuss whose name should be prayed at the opening of Parliament. You won't even have to worry because those Parliamentarians will bow their knee at the beginning of a session and they will declare the Lordship of Jesus. And they will want to do it. It won't be forced. It won't be by coercion. And the Lord is dreaming big dreams for nations and He is looking for a people. He is looking for a people in a nation who really believe He can do anything. You listen to me. So start dreaming in here. So start dreaming in here. I am dreaming for you. I tell you what that is revival greater than we have ever stood. Revival. You know how those things happen. It happens one by one. The heart of the aboriginal people in the peoples of the earth it happens one by one. And it will happen. Some of us will live to see it. We will see the fulfilment of that day. And I am not just talking about the millennium. You know we all want the Lord Jesus to come but we have a little work to do. We want to present Australia before the throne of God. We want Him to say to the people of Australia, Well done. How big can you dream. You see God cannot move any bigger than your dreams and visions although He wants to because He has limited Himself to what we will pray for and He has limited Himself to what we will ask for. Ask of Me the nations for your inheritance. That is what the Word of God says. So here we are. We are not a very large crowd of people but there's a powerful crowd of people here. I sense a real anointing here in this room and some of you, you are going to take this. When I am telling you these words it burns in your heart. Why? Because it is the Holy Spirit He is speaking. He is saying Yes, Yes.
