Gives us strength

Causes our enemies to be subjected to us

Gives us justice and courage to make a declaration

Gives you people to help with your mandate

Causes us to rest

Gives us freedom

Causes us to prophesy

Transports/translates us; Judges 11:29, Ezekiel 37:1, Acts 8:39

Tested Ananias and Sapphira Acts 5

Isaiah 61:1 and Luke 4:18 The Spirit of the Lord is upon me and He has anointed me to be Hope for the poor, Pardon for prisoners of war, Freedom for the broken hearted, and New Eyes for the blind. They have capitals like a person because the Spirit of the Lord enables us to become Hope, Pardon, Freedom and New Eyes. We manifest it not just give it.

Might

We need the spirit of Might to win over spirits of control.

Places a passion in a believer that will motivate him to hate evil and will empower him to carry out God's plan on the earth.

Resides as a nuclear force within the individual who propels him forward over every evil opponent that may attempt to restrain him.

Confronts resistance

Provides the individual to distinguish right from wrong in any situation, and to go on from there.

Never defends; simply endows the person it dwells in with the power to state the facts

Gives the human mind the supernatural ability to remain in peace and to rest in the midst of battle

Brings the assurance of the coming victory

Causes the joy of the Lord to manifest around the one who possesses it

Endows the physical body and the emotions with endurance and protection.

Supplies the supernatural ability to carry on far beyond the natural, soulish limitations

Never comes upon a person for the purpose of self-gain

Comes in order that the purpose of God may be fulfilled in the earth through the church

Wisdom

Abundance, she does not live outside the desire of God, be taught by her.

1. Overwhelming feeling of respect, awe.
(Opposite of what's in it for me? No wisdom)
- Honours God which impacts people
2. Attracts attention – good and bad
(People don't want you to have what you have)
She will endow and fill your treasures
Boldness because of her transparency – nothing can be hidden
3. Relevant
